TASTING NOTES

A beautiful golden yellow color with brilliant reflections. A fresh bouquet with a hint of acacia, almond, butter and vanilla. Smooth and round on the palate, it culminates with a pleasant woody note. Aperitif, chicken pâté, poultry in sauce, mushroom cream.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Vacuum distillation is divided into two stages. The first is to pass the wine through a distillation column and extract the very volatile compounds (aromas) in a small alcoholic fraction at a temperature of 30 ° C. The second step is to make a second pass of the wine on the column to remove the alcohol. Then reinject the aromatic fraction extracted during the first step into the dealcoholized wine.
