Dark red color. Complex nose dominated by black fruits and delicate aromas of new wood. The nose is powerful and intense. The attack on the palate is powerful. The tannins are powerful but remain fine and elegant. Perfect match with red meats, game and cheese.

PRODUCT NOTES

This wine comes from a monopoly of the contiguous flagships of the Saint-Joseph appellation from the former Jean-Louis Grippat and Vallouit estates. It is the unique expression of the most impressive and exclusive hillside of the Saint-Joseph appellation. Very steep vines in a granite hillside.

PRODUCTION NOTES

Manual harvest in September. Control of alcoholic fermentation and temperatures up to 33 ° C. Aging in new oak barrels for 30 months.
