ABOUT THIS WINERY

TASTING NOTES

Garnet color. The nose reveals aromas of ripe forest fruits, as well as spicy notes and touches of vanilla which round off the bouquet. The palate is tasty with round tannins which ensure good structure. Excellent balance between sugar and acidity. The long and pleasant finish emphasizes the quality of the raw material. Ideal to accompany beef and game stews. Serve chilled.

PRODUCTION NOTES

This dealcoholized wine was launched after two years of technical research and market studies. Several tests have been carried out and several products have been tasted in order to find the perfect profile for an innovative wine.
